Community Service Award Nomination

Instructions for making a nomination for the Community Service Award

- Nominee must be a resident of Shell Knob.
- Nominee should be someone who has made consistent, significant contributions to this community and who has helped improve the local way of life. Involvement in more than one activity is considered an advantage.
- List philanthropic and civic organization membership(s).
- List community activity involvement.
- Give personal accomplishments, awards and honors.
- Explain the personal qualities which make this person qualified for this honor.
- Please give personal references and contacts and include phone numbers for more detail.
- Winners are chosen by an anonymous committee of three to five Shell Knob residents. Please include as much information as possible. The number of times a person is nominated will likely have no affect on the committee's decision but multiple nominations can be helpful if they contain information not noted here.
